

Create Table (in Oracle 8.something)

```
Drop Table Staff;
```

```
Create Table Staff(
    Staff_ID          varchar(10) not null primary key,
    Last_Name         varchar(25) not null,
    First_Name        varchar(25) not null,
    Position_Code     varchar(10) not null references Positions( Position_Code ),
    WU_Number         varchar(4),
    Shift             varchar(7) default 'Day' check (Shift='Day' or Shift='Evening' or Shift='Night'),
    FTE               number(5,2) default 0,
    Seniority_Date    date,
    Staff_Leave_Code   char(5),
    Phone_Number      char(20),
    Location          varchar(20),
    Tier              char(1),
    Salary_Grade      varchar(2),
    Neg_Unit          varchar(10) default 'CSEA' check( Neg_Unit='CSEA' or Neg_Unit='NYSCOPBA' or Neg_Unit='Council 82' or Neg_Unit='PS&T' or Neg_Unit='MC' ),
    SSN              varchar(11) unique,
    ItemNumber        varchar(5),
    Up_DateTime       date,
    Up_UserName       varchar(20),
    Up_ComputerName   varchar(15)
);
```

```
Drop Table Positions;
```

```
Create Table Positions (
    Position_Code     varchar(10) not null primary key,
    Position_Name     varchar(20) not null,
    Position_Type     varchar(7),
    Coverage_Goal     number(6,2),
    Up_DateTime       date,
    Up_UserName       varchar(20),
    Up_ComputerName   varchar(15)
)
```